A Sewing Room Chat with the President

"INSPIRATION"

Did you go to our Quilt Show? Wasn't it amazing? This year's Quilt Show was one of the best, ever. All systems appeared to run smoothly and we received many, many compliments. One thing that was very noticeable was the high level of cooperation among our Guild members, and the positive attitude that permeated the entire event. Our vendors rated us highly among the events they regularly attend, and our visitors were clearly impressed. Well done Karen Price, the Quilt Show Committee, and the members of the SRVQG!

Of all of the good things a quilt show provides to quilters, the most enduring is inspiration. All of those amazing examples get the wheels turning in a quilter's head and a new quilt is born. At least that's what we all hope happens. One has to suspect, however, that a lot of this inspiration is put on hold because it seems that in the preparation stages of our last several quilt shows, extreme effort has been required to gather a sufficient number of quilts to make a respectable show. One of the limiting factors is that to qualify to be entered in a show, a quilt must not have been previously entered in a show sponsored by the same organization. Other reasons? Well, life happens.

It would be really wonderful if, by the time our next quilt show rolls around, we each had a new quilt ready to register. Before you begin to feel overwhelmed by this prospect, consider this: How many quilt tops do you have stacked in your sewing room, or on a shelf, in a box, or in a closet right now? I'll bet you have at least one or two; I have several. With quilt tops ready to be quilted you are better than halfway there already! Why not have one or two of them quilted and finished by our 2019 show? Let's make it official. I challenge each and every SRVQG member to complete at least one new quilt for our 2019 quilt show. You have your mission, should you choose to accept it, and I promise you that it is not impossible.

Until the next meeting, keep singing!

Connie Rafferty

Loose Threads from the Vice President

VP Challenge! I'll be adding a "twist" to the Empty Spool Challenge in May, so stay tuned. And keep saving those empty spools.

April Early Bird will be "Custom Chatelaines" presented by our very own esteemed leader... Connie Rafferty. Remember the Early Bird starts at 6:00.

Our program will be "Signature Quilts" presented by Joyce Shoemaker and Linda Hughes from the Quilt Heritage Museum.

BTW...if you were at the March meeting and got sample squares from Alicia Williams who demo'd the 4-Patch Posie, remember to turn in your 4-patch posies in MAY. Alicia will collect them and turn them into a charity quilt.

May Early Bird will "Pocket House" presented by new member Sharon Horne.

Our Program will be "Adding 3-D to your Quilts" by Marsha Nipper. This is something I'd like to try my hand out so I'm excited to learn what Marsha can teach me.

Still looking for and Early Bird presenter for September. If you're interested please let me know by calling 916.296.8861 or emailing me mdmontalvo@yahoo.com.

Keep Sewing!.....Marei Montalvo

2017 Workshop <http://srvquiltguild.org/activities/workshops/>

We are pleased to announce that our next workshop will be July 21 & 22, 2017 and will feature Gina Perkes, an internationally award-winning machine quilter. She will be teaching two machine quilting classes. These are hands on using your domestic machine. The workshops will be on July 21 & 22, 2017. They are:

Not So Basic Machine Quilting
Friday July 21, 2017

Ready to take your free motion quilting to the next level? You will learn many new designs in this class and easy ways to quilt them including: motifs, sashing designs, and fillers. Discover how to select stitching paths which will reduce or eliminate backtracking altogether. Gina will help you to identify your own unique style and build upon it. She will also discuss how to change the look and style of a quilting design by varying added details. This class is filled with techniques, tips, creativity, & inspiration!

Ruler Work I
Saturday July 22, 2017

Quilting rulers are amazing tools! Gina will show you how to use them to create incredible free motion designs. You will discover how to hold them for better control and accuracy, how to use the registration marks on the rulers for angles and built up designs, and which foot to use. You will leave class with excellent technique and a new supply of quilting designs: both curvy and geometric.

These workshops are hands on and are taught for domestic sewing machines. The cost for the classes is $60/class. You can sign up for these classes, either immediately before the meeting or at the break. If you can't make the meeting, please send me a check made out to SRVQG & the name of the class(es) you are signing up for. My address is Lynne Saul, 2325 N. 26 W., Idaho Falls, ID 83402.

Gina will also be giving a lecture, "How do I quilt this?" at our meeting on July 20th. She said we could send her pictures of two quilt tops and she would include them & ideas on how to quilt them in the lecture. We've discussed a few ways to select quilt tops for this opportunity. One would be to have everyone interested in submitting pictures of their quilt top put their name in a drawing and we would draw out two names. Another would be to select one top from each of our most recent workshops, Bonnie Hunter and Judy Niemeyer (taught by Kathy Carter), and submit those for the lectures. What are your thoughts? Please let me know.

Be sure to sign up at April's meeting for these excellent classes. We will be opening the classes to nonmembers following the April meeting.

CURIOUS AS TO WHAT THE JUDGES LOOKED FOR?

Some of the things the judges checked:

TECHNICAL POINTS

- Does the quilt lie flat?
- Are the sides straight?
- Are your borders the same size consistently?
- Are your seam intersections accurate? Are your star points or flying geese points not "eaten"?
- Does the center of multiple seam intersections lay flat?
- Does the quilting enhance the quilt?
- Is your quilt clean and free from hair, lint, and pet hair?
- Are all your threads clipped? Especially if you had your quilt has been quilted on a long arm, be sure to give your quilt the once over for threads.

BINDINGS

- Were the bindings even front to back?
- Were the bindings filled with batting clear out to the edge?

- If corners were mitered on the front, were they mitered on the back?
- Were the binding corners square and not dog-eared?
- Applique stitches to apply binding should be invisible.
- Were the bindings ripped?
- Were the bindings smoothly joined together?

Tips to Solve Binding Issues

- * Most problems with filled, even binding can be solved by using a 2" or 2-1/4" binding strip instead of a 2-1/2" strip, adjusting for the thickness of the bat. A really puffy bat might require 2-1/2", a low-loft bat 2-1/4", and really flat bats require just 2".
- * Sew a consistent, accurate 1/4" when attaching the binding. That way the front will measure 1/4" from the seam to the edge, and the seam on the back will also measure 1/4" from the edge, and if you stitch the fold of the binding to just cover that seam, you have a well-filled binding.
- * Mitering the corners of your binding so the open edge faces the opposite direction on the back from the front is another way of distributing the bulk.

CALL FOR QUILTS

The Bonneville County fair wants YOU to put a quilt or two into their Open Class Quilting.

No, the County Fair is not just for 4H kids' animals and projects. Every year it also shows off quilts made by Bonneville County residents and people who live nearby. It's a great little show, and we have some wonderful quilters in the area. Help fill the show with some of the wonderful quilts you displayed at the guild show in March. Help fill the show with new quilts that didn't make it into that show. Tell your friends, tell your church groups, tell any quilter you know who perhaps doesn't know about the County Fair.

Fill out the entry form, one for each quilt. The quilts must be turned in on August 2nd. If you mail your entry form to me early, I will CALL you to remind you when and where to bring your quilts to the fair.

RECIPES

At the Quilt Show several individuals requested the chicken salad recipe from the Tea Room. Here it is, and also the hummus recipe.

Chicken Salad

- 50 oz. canned white meat chicken, drained. (SAM's Club has the best price)
- 1 can (8 oz.) sliced water chestnuts, drained and coarsely chopped
- 1 cup diced celery
- 1-1/3 cups mayonnaise
- 1 teaspoon onion powder
- Salt and pepper to taste

In a large bowl shred the chicken with your hands. Combine thoroughly with remaining ingredients. Keep refrigerated. Makes eight generous half-cup servings.

Hummus

- 1-1/2 cups dry chick peas
- 3 medium cloves garlic, minced
- 1-1/2 teaspoons salt
- Dash of Tamari (soy sauce)
- Juice of one medium lemon
- 3/4 cup Tahini paste (a sesame seed paste available near the peanut butter in the grocery store)
- 1/4 cup finely minced parsley, firmly packed
- Black pepper to taste

Rinse and pick over the chick peas, then cover with hot water and let soak overnight. In the morning, drain the chick peas and place in a Dutch oven or other 4 to 6 quart cook pot. Cover with about two inches of cold water. Bring to a boil, reduce heat, and simmer until chick peas are soft and easily mashed with a spoon. You may have to add more water during the cooking process, and it may take two hours or longer of simmering to thoroughly cook the chick peas.

Using a food processor, blender, food mill or grinder, mash the chick peas into a thick paste, using a little of the cooking liquid if the paste seems too thick. Combine thoroughly with remaining ingredients and chill thoroughly.
