

Snake River Valley Quilt Guild

General Meeting Minutes

March 16, 2017

Submitted by Pam Traugher

Approved at the April 20, 2017 General Meeting

Early Bird: Marei Montalvo presented the class "Y Not" in the Early Bird education segment.

Call to Order: Connie Rafferty brought the meeting to order at 7pm with advice from the Singer Company, circa 1949. The meeting continued in an orderly manner after we all straightened up and wiped our eyes.

Thank you to Marei Montalvo who had presented the class "Y Not" in the Early Bird education segment.

Visitors and New Members: New members and visitors were welcomed.

Minutes: Minutes were moved for approval, seconded and voted in.

Business:

- Laura Wallace was given an award for going above and beyond the duties of a treasurer while she corrected our tax status, developed our new website, and created a charity spot for us on Amazon Smile.
- The quote of the month was known by nearly everyone.
- Memberships will be up for many of us to renew.
- Sew-in will be held Saturday, April 22, when Millie bags will be made here at the church. This $10 workshop will be from 9:30am to 3pm with a pot luck lunch.
- Workshops with Gina Perkes are still available.
- Retreat will be held 11-15 Oct., with sign-ups starting in Apr. Cost will be about $80.
- Quilt Show:
 - Workers are still needed. The After party will be held 25 April with food and prizes.
 - Quilt check in will be Monday 10-2 at the Jack Hamilton Bldg. at the county fairgrounds.
 - Raffle tickets need to be turned in.

- Block of the month continues apace.

Show and Tell: Show and Tell produced more wonderful works.

BREAK

Education: Alicia Williams presented the Four-Patch Posey, a four square stack and whack, with homework assignments of blocks to be returned in May.

Raffle and Adjournment: The meeting drew to a close at 8:52pm after the raffle.