

Snake River Valley Quilt Guild

General Meeting Minutes

June 15, 2017

Submitted by Pam Traugher

Early Bird: Medallion Quilts by Marei Montalvo

Call to Order: at 7:03 by Connie Rafferty

Visitors and New Members: Today we had 2 visitors and one re-member sign up.

Minutes: from May approved after motion and second.

Business:

- Pres. requests recipes sent to her by July (asap) as it would be nice to have the new cookbook available by Christmas as a gift. The Free Table will be in use until November when we will start saving up our things and pin money for the Stash for Cash in March. Cool bags were awarded to those who sold over 90 raffle tickets for the last quilt. The quote was by Frank Lloyd Wright. Info: Brady's is in search of a sales associate in the sewing department; the Row By Row Experience is coming up; Susan Ovard is downsizing.
- Nominating Committee needs to fill positions for vice-president, secretary, assistant treasurer, courtesy, and retreat team. Volunteer for president would be appreciated, and many thanks to Jeanette for volunteering to be assistant historian. Please see Marsha Nipper or Sandra Brow to sign up for these interesting opportunities.
- Lynne Saul reported that there are a few spots left for a Gina Perkes workshop. Quilt tops by Barbara Bradley and Lori Wickham will be used by Perkes to demonstrate how to choose what to quilt. Assistants are needed for the workshops.
- Charity – make certain that you put your name on your contributions so that you can get credit.
- Youth Auxiliary will start up again on July 7, but they still need adult help Fridays 10-2:30. Call Kim Jockusch.
- Quilt Show – Karen raffled the Teton ring won by Alicia Williams.
- Retreat is still possible for 10 or so additional people. It is Oct. 11-15 at West Piney.
- Intraguild – Relay for Life cancer support would like a quilt donation. Plans ongoing.

Show and Tell:

BREAK

Education: VP Marei Montalvo introduced Pam Morgan, a local quilter/artist/fabric designer/CEO of Sweet Little Stitches, who spoke of “Combining Vintage and Modern in Your Quilts.”

Raffle and Adjournment: After the raffle, the meeting ended at 9:10pm, but it was still light outside!
