

Snake River Valley Quilt Guild

General Meeting Minutes

20 April 2017

Submitted by Pam Traughber

Approved at the May 18, 2017 General Meeting

Early Bird: Custom Chatelaines by Connie Rafferty

Call to Order: 7:01pm

Visitors and New Members: Were introduced and had gifts foisted upon them.

Minutes: Minutes from last month's meeting were unanimously approved.

Business: Many knew the Quote of the Month from Beverly "Bubbles" Sills.

Vice-President Marei Montalvo stated that there would be a twist in the Spools Challenge next month, with the reveal coming in August.

Bessie Bradshaw presented our president with the Quotes Roladex.

Quilt Show chair Karen Price received flowers and accolades for her hard work and talent in guiding the show. She gave her thanks to all and extended the invitation to the after party to be held Tuesday, April 25th. The final show meeting is to be May 9th and all of the show leaders are to bring their notebooks.

David Nipper had made videos of the show which are available for a donation.

The Millie Bag Sew In – Saturday, April 22, free lunch.

Lynne Saul reminded that signups for the Gina Perkes machine quilting workshops are still available.

Marsha Nipper alerted the Secret Sisters that they should have heard from their SSES at least once.

Some great books are available from the guild library.

Julie and Jill continue to give us challenges and persist with the BOM.

Kat Blakely is getting us back to work on charity quilts. Plenty are available to work on.

Consider putting your quilts in the Bonneville County Fair, coming up fast! See Sandra Brow.

Show and Tell:

BREAK

Education: The program this evening was presented by Joyce Shoemaker and Linda Hughes about signature quilts. A variety of intriguing historical quilts were shown.

Raffle and Adjournment: The meeting came to a close at 8:42pm.