Picnic Meeting at Tautphaus Park

Early Bird: Marei Montalvo taught us how to play Left-Center-Right.

Call to Order: At 6:16pm Connie brought us to order, and invited us to eat!

Visitors and New Members: Visitors and new members were introduced.

Minutes: The minutes from the July meeting were approved.

Business:

As Karen Price will be unable to be the next Quilt Show chair, volunteers are needed for that position.

Connie reported that about 80 more recipes are needed to make up a good cookbook.

Lynne Saul was honored for her time, dedication and talents.

Retreat: 19 have signed up; 14 have paid.

The newsletter quote was from Robin Sharma.

The winners of the spooly project were Marsha Nipper, Kim Jockusch and Susan Collins.

The Quilt Heritage Museum needs volunteers to sell quilt raffle tickets at the State Fair. They will have an applique teacher, Sandra Leichner, March 5-9th.

Portneuf Valley Quilt Guild will have a speaker expert in vintage fabrics Oct. 4th and 5th. Tickets are $5 for the lecture.

David Nipper won the "How Many Buttons" contest.

Finished Block of the Month tops are due in September.

A trunk show will be held for Fairwinds on Thursday, September 7th at 2:30pm. There will be a meeting August 24th from 1-2pm to organize. Contact Marsha Nipper if you are interested in helping.

The Sew-In on Sept. 23rd is Stack and Whack stars. Emily Fogg has the sign-up.

Show and Tell:

Education: Marei Montalvo presented her theory of the RonCo Quiltamatic.

The get-to-know-you segment was very entertaining, and informational.

Raffle and Adjournment: The meeting was adjourned before dark.
