“LOTS OF NEWS!”

When it rains, it pours! That certainly describes the goings on of the SRVQG this fall, not to mention my own situation. The SRVQG has had another incredible year including, but not limited to, a record breaking Stash-4-Cash, a lecture by Deborah Poole, a great picnic, Crackerjack quilts, the publishing of our Guild Cookbook, the addition of Secret Sams, and an AWESOME Retreat! None of these things would have been possible without the hard work, dedication, and participation of Guild members, so give yourself a pat on the back for a job well done! We can all look forward to another year of fun and meaningful activities.

Retreat was a blast! The new venue, Living Waters Ranch, is exceptional, and everyone who attended this year wants to attend next year. More spots may be added for next year, and there will be more information on that after the first of the year. It was really nice to have a bigger activity space, particularly after we learned how to activate all of the overhead lighting. We played “Left – Center – Right”, including one particularly aerobic game. The Copper Mountain Mobile Quilt Shop was a big hit, and Bobbie, Sheryl’s assistant, cut fabric for two and a half hours straight. The prime rib and shrimp dinner was excellent, and everyone got a big kick out of the after dinner entertainment, “You Bet Your Seam Ripper!”. Thursday was show and tell – and awards. Everyone had at least one project to share. Awards included recognition and a prize for everyone who had dispatched a wasp (we’re talking the flying, stinging insects here, not the acronym!!!) during the retreat, with highest honors given if it included a burial at sea. We also recognized Marion Weitfle, Kim Jockusch’s mom, who was unanimously elected Most Charming Guest.

Dianne Cresap and Laurie Baum were honored for being the most helpful. Peggy Allison was given top honors for independently planning, preparing and serving tea to us every afternoon, including setting tables with beautifully embroidered tea linens and tea cups. We have reserved LWR again for next year, October 21 – 25. Save the date!

Closer to home, the SRVQG has gained a new sponsor: A.C. Moore. In exchange for free advertising in our newsletter, they will be giving us all of their remnants. How did this come about you ask? , Well, I got a job. I am now a Fabric Specialist for A.C. Moore’s Idaho Falls Store (see their ad in this issue). Last week I had the opportunity to visit with the company’s Senior Buyer, and she offered the remnants in exchange for advertising. Oh – and if you haven’t heard, A.C. Moore has lowered their prices on fabric.

So take this opportunity, before the furious pace of the holidays are upon us, to sit back for a moment, smile, and remember all of the good things our efforts with the Guild have produced this year.

Until the meeting, keep singing and dancing!

Guild Meeting Program November 15, 2018

Early Bird

Handmade Ornament Exchange

Education Program

Holiday Quilts Show and Tell

There will be a short presentation on how to make the Christmas stockings...and because everyone loves a quilt show, please bring no more than two holiday quilts to show. Any holiday will do. We want to see your creativity.

Should be an inspiring evening.

Announcements

To all of you who have volunteered to sponsor a resident at the Good Samaritan facility:

Thank you for giving your time, talents, and care to those in need! The residents that you have chosen to sponsor will be overjoyed to receive any and all handmade and donated items for the upcoming holiday season and throughout the following year.

Due to privacy policies, all initial donations will have to go through the Social Activities Chairperson or the staff social worker. They will make sure the items will go to the resident you have selected. If you would like to meet the resident, please put your names on a card for him/her, the contact person will then ask the resident if he/she would like to meet you all. If they agree, then you will be introduced. From that time on, you will be able to schedule times to see them whenever you would like.

Please be respectful of the resident's wishes if they do not want to meet you.

Again, many thanks for all you do and your willingness to serve our community.

Julie and Jill

Charity/Community Support

Thanks to everyone who took a quilt top home to quilt. I'm very impressed with the response.

You saw how many tops there are. WOW! So we'll keep bringing them to guild.

PLEASE don't stop at one. You could win the $50 gift certificate to Daydreams .

~ Kat Blakely

Quilts of Valor Sewing Group

QOV Foundation recorded its 200,000th quilt award the last week of October!! Thank you to all who have contributed to this mark.

The Eastern Idaho QOV Quilters will continue to sew during November and December. Our scheduled sew days include:

2nd Thursday - St. Luke's Episcopal Church - 10 - 3 pm

4th Saturday - Brady's - 10 - 3 pm - Yes, we will meet on Thanksgiving weekend

Thank you to those who have donated to our cause. We received a finished quilt top this week.

I have received two more requests from QOVF for quilts. Please help us say Thank You to our veterans.

Sew-In Quilting Tips with Beverly Hindman Saturday January 19, 2019

We will have an exciting day of examining how to improve your skills in quilt making.

Beverly Hindman has graciously agreed to come and share and answer questions for a short time and there will (hopefully) be others who will share their expertise.

We will cover precision piecing, binding, fabric choosing, how to pretreat fabric, how to cut, rulers, math in a quilt, no project, but lots of fun with samples and sewing to become a better quilter.

~ Dianne Cresap and Emily Fogg

Intraguild Activities

Ornament Exchange

We will exchange handmade ornaments at our November meeting Early Bird. Please bring your ornament in a small bag.

Before we exchange we will show and tell about our ornaments.

Activities for 2019

Yes! We are already making plans! According to the Activities Survey, you all would like to have:

- a Fabric Exchange,
- a Scrappy Stash Buster Challenge,
- and a UFO Challenge.

In January, the year will start off with a bang!

- ⇒ We will hand out the schedule of activities,
- ⇒ We will also have sign ups for Block of the Month "The Quiltmaker's Journey" and hand out patterns,
- ⇒ And, we will begin collecting donations for Stash For Cash held at the March meeting.

~ Julie Finnigan and Jill Jensen

Singer 400 Sewing and Embroidery Machine

This machine was purchased approximately four years ago for $1,800.00 and has very few hours on it; the asking price is $900.00. It is "almost new in box".

It sews everything from chiffon to leather, is computer ready, and has a $1,000.00 embroidery program installed on it (after factory).

Contact Ethel Weeks at (208)542-0381.

The Snake River Valley Quilt Guild Cookbook

The SRVQG Cookbook will be available for sale at the November meeting. The cost is $20.00 each, which includes tax.

Cash, checks, and credit cards will be accepted.

Remember this is a fundraiser for the guild, so feel free to buy in bulk !!!

Quilting Bees

SRVQG's Quilting Bees are smaller groups within the guild. They typically meet in members' homes to socialize and quilt together.

Some Bees meet monthly, some weekly, some in the daytime, some in the evenings. Usually participation is limited by the size of the room in which they meet. Call ahead to see if a particular Bee is open to new members, or is full for now.
