Presidents Charity Project

“Quilt As You Go”

Jeanette presented her charity project for the membership participation.

She displayed a quilt block with the pattern for the first month.

Each of the following months will have a different color scheme. You choose your own block pattern. Blocks need to be 12-1/2 inches, sandwiched and quilted.

Bring the blocks each month to the guild. The blocks will then be put together as a possible sew-in quarterly. Then the quilts will be given to a charity.

Intraguild – Pam Noonan

No on present the projects this month, houses, presents and campers.

Quilt of Valor – Mimi Jones

Meeting at Brady's 4th Saturday each month 10 to ____.

Positions to Fill – Contact Jeanette if interested

New Challenge by Marei Montalvo

“Paper Lunch Bag Challenge”

She started off with a story of Polka Dots and Jungle Animals. This was based on a quilt guild she belonged to previously where they had done a challenge with polka dots and jungle animals.

Paper Lunch Bag Rules:

- 1 No questions – it is a challenge. Figure it out and have a good time.
- 2 Reveal will be in June
- 3 No square quilt
- 4 Size – 51 inches or Bigger / 99 inches or smaller
- 5 Multiple items in bag. Some have more than one in quantity. Must use at least 1 of each item in bag on the front of quilt.
- 6 Each bag will have a designated color. Can add more stuff, just remember your color)
- 7 No trading
- 8 No complaining

Retreat in October

Connie Rafferty spoke briefly about the retreat in October at the Living Waters Ranch.
More details to come.

Education – Connie Rafferty

“Retro Quilts – Feed Sack Revival”

We are lucky to have plenty of fabric available. Back in war time it was hard to get fabric in the late 1920”s. Everything was made from feed sacks. The string was saved for crochet doilies etc.

Here are some of the quilts made from feed sacks:

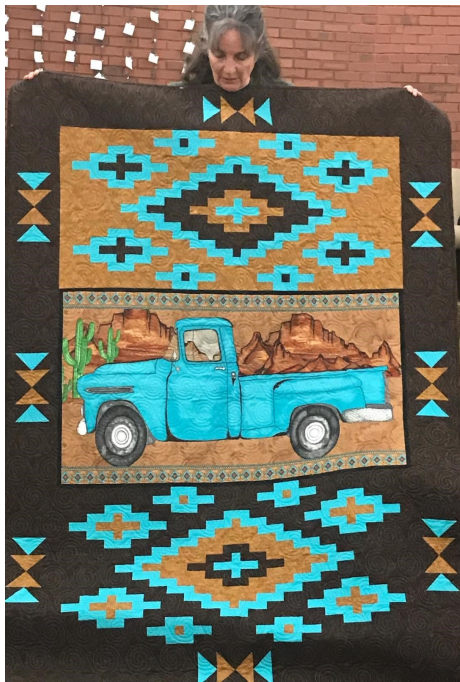

Show and Tell:

Marei Montalvo
Pam Traugher
Steve Schmid
Jodie Von Kamecke

Linda Borba
Connie Rafferty
Mimi Jones

Deb Breese
Renee Phillips
Diana Cary

Some of the beautiful quilts shown for Show & Tell (not in order from list above).

Raffle and Adjournment: Jeannette Hanson conducted the raffle. The meeting was adjourned at 8:36 PM.
