Snake River Valley Quilt Guild July 2023 Newsletter

A Sewing Room Chat with the President

It's July and half the year is gone already, but there's still a lot happening with the guild!

First off, Robin Long will be doing a presentation at our July Guild meeting, then teaching classes both Friday and Saturday at the Masonic Lodge. Have you secured your spot(s)?

In August we have our annual picnic at Tautphaus Park. This is a great, relaxed way to connect with everyone. We'll gather at 5:00 & eat at 5:30. There will be a game, or two, some prizes, a free table, as well as great food. The guild provides fried & baked chicken. The members provide whatever they'd like. This is a TRUE potluck! We don't assign what you bring.

In September we have a Day Retreat at the Parks & Rec building by the airport (I always forget the exact name). We can sew all day then head over to the guild meeting. Day Retreats are always fun. Bring some projects, a snack to share, your lunch (or go out) & just have fun!

The September Guild meeting is ELECTION night, so plan on being there.

In October there is no meeting because we have our Annual Retreat at Living Waters Ranch in Challis. I believe there are just a few beds left. Don't miss out on this great activity!!

November will be a wrap up to our Intraguild activities as well as the "big" drawing from those who have entered the monthly Name Tag drawings.

We don't meet in December, but this year we have a no-host dinner planned for December 7th at the New Hong Kong Restaurant in Idaho Falls. There will be a gift exchange for those who want to participate, games to play, and maybe even a surprise or two. I hope you make plans to join us.

See you Thursday night!

Keep on stitching

Marei

The Raffle Block for this month is the Idaho Star because July 3, 1890 is when Idaho became the 43rd state. Make as many as you want. You will get one ticket for each block turned in. The winner takes all.

If you finished your #3 UFO show it and you will receive 2 tickets. If you have finished any of the previous month's UFOs show them and receive 1 ticket.

We will be revealing the finished holiday/seasonal table runner/topper challenge.

Continue working on those cute Scrap Buster Button Blocks. You should have a plan on how you want to finish your project. Remember to check your notebook for details.

Are you working on your Jellyroll Challenge?

Looking forward to seeing what you have finished.

Getting to Know...

Tami King

Tami grew up in Shelley, Idaho. She is married and has children. Her favorite quote is "You have to grow old but you don't have to grow up!" She does not own her own long arm and her favorite pattern is the Log Cabin.

Her daughter, Shanna, introduced her to quilting.

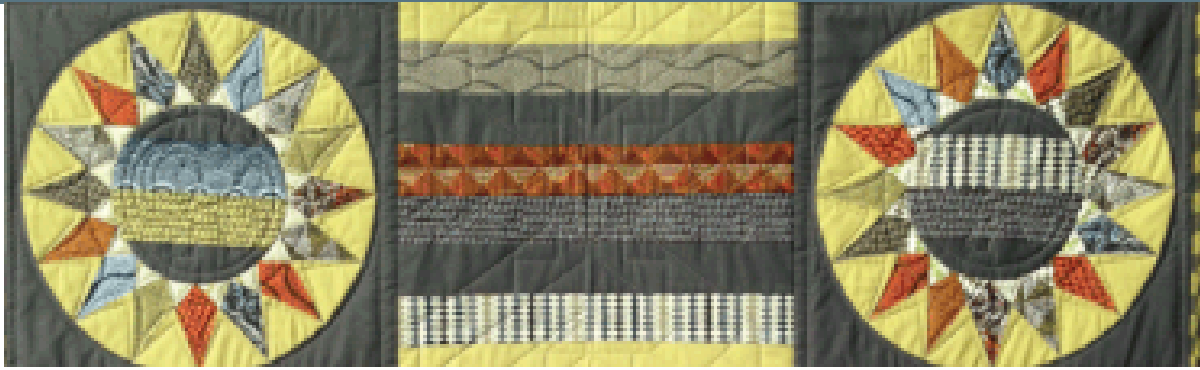

Tami's favorite color palette is anything in Jewel Tones.

QUILT EXHIBIT IN LAVA HOT SPRINGS!

From May 18 through September 13, 2023 the South Bannock County Historical Center and Museum will be exhibiting several quilts from the Quilt Heritage Museum Collection. We invite you to stop in and see these quilts and all the other interesting displays in the building.

Thanks to Zack Stoddard and his staff for providing QHM with this exhibit space. They are welcoming and great to work with!

Currently the slate for the election of officers for 2024 is as follows:

If you are interested in running for one of these offices, please speak up! Nominations from the floor can also be accepted the night of the election. Please note...if you plan to nominate someone be sure you have discussed it with them first.
