SNAKE RIVER VALLEY QUILT GUILD OCTOBER 2023 NEWSLETTER

A Sewing Room Chat with the President

Hello all!

As we wrap up our year I want to say "thank you" for participating in the guild by showing up for meetings, joining in Intraguild activities, attending sew-ins, the picnic, day retreats, Challis retreat, this year's workshop, and for supporting the monthly raffles. You're a wonderful group of folks and it brings me great joy to hear the chit chat & laughter during our pre-meeting social time. I'm already looking forward to 2024.

DON'T FORGET our No-Host holiday party on Tuesday, December 5th at 6:00! We'll be getting together in the back room at the New Hong Kong Restaurant (1820 Jenny Lee Dr, Idaho Falls). If you would like to, please bring a WRAPPED gift ($20 value). If you bring one, you get one. There will be a game or two, and some prizes. I hope to see you there.

There is NO FREE TABLE this month. After much consideration, the Board has decided to close our Library, and all books will be on sale in the foyer for $3 each. Cash is encouraged, but checks are happily accepted (made out to SRVQG).

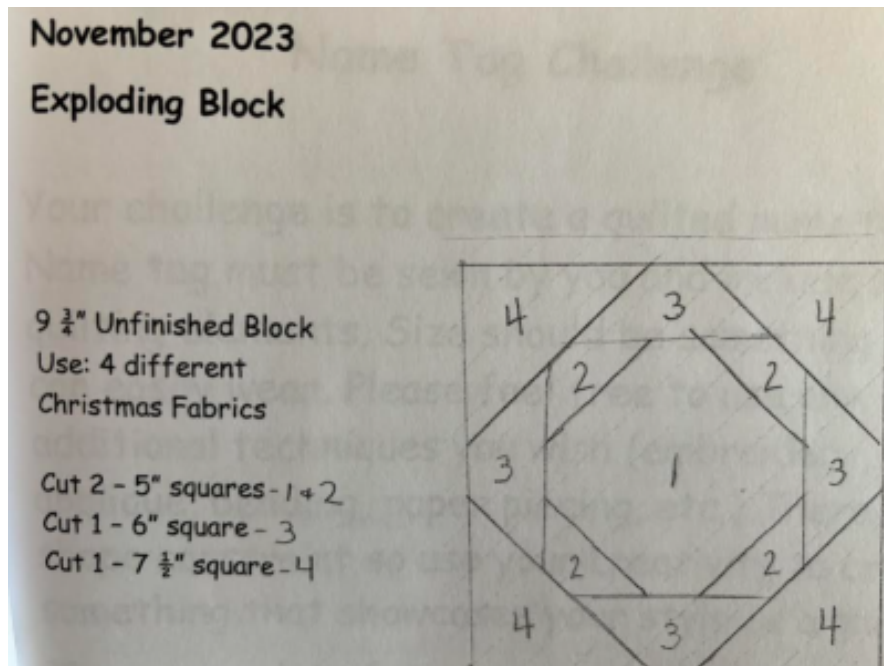

See you all on the 16th.

Marei

Intraguild Activities

The Raffle Block for this month is the Exploding Block using 4 different Christmas Fabrics. Make as many blocks as you want.

If you finished your #1 and #7 UFOs show them and you will receive 2 tickets. If you have finished any of the previous month's UFOs show them and receive 1 ticket. This is the last month for the UFO Challenge for 2023. Get those projects completed.

Scrap Buster Button Blocks quilt and Jellyroll Challenges will be revealed at the November meeting. Please plan on showing even if it is a flimsy. You will be awarded. Remember to check your notebook for details.

I have been working on next year's Intraquild Activities. I am excited for another year full of a variety of activities, challenges and raffle blocks. I will have the January Raffle Block instructions for you to pick up at my table so be sure to pick one up.

Looking forward to seeing what you have finished.

See you at the meeting,

Jeanette
