Minutes: A motion was made to approve the minutes from September 18, 2025, meeting by Trudy seconded by Serena, and passed by a vote of the membership.

Business & Announcements:

There will be big drawings tonight so please don't leave early! Make sure guests visit Christy on break to get a fat quarter. If you wish to be a member next year, please contact Renee Estrada. If it is your birthday month, please make sure to connect with Christy for a little gift.

The holiday party is December 3rd @ Dixie's diner. We will start at 6:00 pm. There is an optional gift exchange with a 25$ limit. Guild does not pay for dinner so please be prepared to pay for your food and or desert. There is room for about 35 people.

The president's economy block swap quilts were shown.

We had 25 new members in the last year, and Christy would like to have a get together at Jone's Sew N' Vac January 31st, 2026, from 10 to 4 to get to know each other and make name tags. All members are included who would like to make a name tag and make new friends.

Workshop:

Lemoine star with the sisters will be on February 21st at the Masonic Lodge. You can attend the workshop even if you did not attend the first one. Cost is 40 dollars.

Laura Heine Collage workshop will be held March 20th and 21st. This will be a two-day workshop with enough space for about 25 to 30 people with a minimum needed of 15. Kit will be available for purchase for about 40 to 45 dollars. There will be a Zoom Class about two weeks before. Sign up for the workshop during the break.

Secret Quilter:

Secret quilters were revealed and last gift was exchanged. Drawing was done for those who participated in Secret quilter. Winners were Robin and Pam.

Susan oversees secret quilter in 2026 and asked that you grab a form from her to fill out if you wish to participate.

Community Support:

Trudy did a drawing of raffle tickets for those who donated quilts. Winner is Wendy Skinner.

The guild donated 6 quilts to Shepards Inn and one quilt for Champs Hart to Raffle.

There are a few quilts in the bin that Trudy brought that need to be quilted. Please pick them up.

Intraguild:
